

New Talk Radio Sports Show on the Air Thursday, September 24

(Dubuque, IA) Starting this Thursday, Mojo's Sports Bar will host a weekly 1-hour radio show. The live show will be called "The Dolph Report," and will be hosted by Gary Dolphin. Gary Dolphin is in his 13th year of broadcasting University of Iowa football and men's basketball. A Cascade, Iowa, native, Gary has 37 years of experience in play-by-play sports broadcasting. Todd Moyer, General Manager of Diamond Jo Casino said, "This concept came to life right after I met Gary. Now, we have the perfect venue and perfect host broadcasting on the Tri-States' best talk radio station! I have so much respect for Dolph and what he's achieved as a sports broadcaster, and I am looking forward to every show."

The Dolph Report will be broadcast live on KDTH from 6pm - 7pm every Thursday through February 11, 2010. "I've always enjoyed interacting with the fans on the air and in person. I love hearing from other fans and why they root for their favorite teams. Dubuque is a great sports town and Mojo's is great sports bar for this show!" Gary Dolphin said. "After 37 years of covering sports locally and nationally and I think I know the fans' hot buttons and we'll talk about what they want to discuss. It'll be opinionated, because that's what makes talk radio fun." Dolphin will take phone calls at 563-690-1370 and answer emails at dolph@diamondjo.com. Fans at Mojo's will also be invited to ask questions.

"The Dolph Report is the kind of original sports programming our listeners expect from us. Gary's unparalleled sports broadcasting experience will make this a fast-paced show and fans are going to have a great time at Mojo's" Tom Parsley, President and General Manager, Radio Dubuque said. The Show will also be streamed live on KDTH's website, www.kdth.com. Radio Dubuque stations have been broadcasting live from Diamond Jo Casino's broadcast center at least 30 hours each week since last December. The Dolph Report will be produced live, in real time on 1370 KDTH.

Mojo's Sports Bar is located on the second floor of the Diamond Jo Casino at 301 Bell Street in Dubuque.
