Mixed Martial Arts Returns to Mississippi Moon Bar

(Dubuque, IA) Diamond Jo Casino in conjunction with Pinnacle Combat announced the next live, mixed martial arts event feature scheduled for Friday, November 13, 2009 at 8 pm. "We hosted a sold out crowd for one of the best competitive mixed martial arts fights last month. Harry Maglaris, President and owner, Pinnacle Combat brings the experience of 6 huge shows including the first Mississippi Moon Bar fights." Todd Moyer, general manager, Diamond Jo Casino said, "Many refer to Maglaris as the hardest working promoter in the sport and others "the area's best fight coordinator." Harry is here tonight to unveil the fight card. We have a lot of respect for the show's he delivers."

Harry Maglaris has produced 6 quality events within the past couple of years. He started coaching fighters, then sponsored them and eventually began promoting mixed martial arts fights in the Tri-State area in April 2008. "This is by far, the most intriguing fight card I have had the honor to promote. We've got a very large pool of talent and a bout where one of the 2 undefeated fighters will lose for the first time in his history as a fighter. The fight card will consist of 9 fights, four amateur and 5 professional all sanctioned by the Iowa Athletic Commission," Maglaris said.

The hexagon cage measures 23' feet across. Spectators can purchase ringside seats for $60 each; there are also $25 and $45 general admission tickets available for this event. Tickets go on sale at 10 AM, Saturday, October 3, 2009 online at www.diamondjo.com or at the Diamond Jo Casino's Diamond Club. Mississippi Moon Bar is age restricted; must be 21.
